

Sample Bequest Language

Leaving a gift in your Will to a ministry or charity that you love is a great expression of your personal values, and it may be simpler than you think. If you would like to do this, consider including this language in your estate plans.

General Support

If you want to support the overall mission of the charitable organizations dear to your heart, please use the following language: “I give _____ (% or dollar amount) of my estate to (Charity Name of City/State) for its general use.”

Specific Program

If you want to support a specific program fund of the charitable organizations dear to your heart, use the following language: “I give ____ (% or dollar) of my estate to (Charity Name of City/State) for the (Name of the Project or Fund).”